

Supported by:

UK Trade
& Investment

The Bar Council of England and Wales request the pleasure of your company at a seminar

'A unique perspective on issues of international law from the English Bar'

Wednesday 26 March 2014, 14:00

A panel of barrister with substantial experience from England in international dispute resolution will discuss:

- The Bar of England and Wales
- Construction projects – common problems
- Crossing the Atlantic in confidence – food regulation in the UK and EU
- Mediation – an introduction to the role of mediation in international disputes
- International arbitration – managing your client's expectations
- The UK Bribery Act and its relevance internationally and in Brazil
- The expansion and influence of international human rights law

Seminar

14:00 - 17:30

(registration from 13:30)

Grupo Collodoro, Av. Corifeu de Azevedo
Marques, 137 Butantã,
Sao Paulo

Networking reception

18:00 - 20:00

UK Deputy Consul General's
Residence
Rua Coronel Bento de Noronha
195 São Paulo

Please RSVP to:

Rafael Massei Souza on Massei.souza@fco.gov.uk or
Amanda Parizzi on Amanda.Parizzi@fco.gov.uk

The Bar Council
Integrity. Excellence. Justice.